

Acknowledgements

The birth of this project came from a decision by Action for UN Renewal to incorporate the annual Erskine Childers lectures into a book. The lectures were started after the untimely death of Erskine Childers, who was a long-standing, distinguished, UN diplomat and a staunch supporter of the organisation and its ideals, and wrote extensively for its reform.

We would like to thank all the contributors for their permission to reproduce the lectures in book form, Jayantha Dhanapala for writing the foreword, and Richard Jolly for his biography of Erskine Childers. Furthermore, we would like to thank Ramesh Thakur for his article titled 'The UN at the Crossroads of Ideals and Reality.'

We would also like to thank Routledge, Taylor & Francis, now publishers of the journal Medicine, Conflict and Survival, where these lectures appeared first, for permission to republish.

Action for UN Renewal gratefully acknowledges the financial contribution by INLAP (Institute for Law and Peace) for their assistance in the project. We would also like to thank Mary and Douglas Holdstock for their efforts in getting the copyright permission for the lectures and preparing the Index, and Abdul Muhib for his assistance in producing this book.

Vijay Mehta